

Association of Women in the Metal Industries

Who We Are

The Association of Women in the Metal Industries (AWMI), founded in 1981, is a professional organization committed to advancing the growth and success of women in the metals industries. Through networking, mentorship, education, and career development programs, AWMI provides opportunities to build skills, share knowledge, and address industry challenges—all to increase the number of women thriving in the metals industry.

Membership is open to both women and men, offering a welcoming space for all professionals in the metals industry. With 20 chapters across the U.S. and 1 in Canada, and more on the horizon, AWMI continues to grow its network and impact!

Our Cornerstones

Educate

Provide useful and relevant programs that offer growth and training

Network

Create opportunities for professional interaction among industry participants

Grow

Create an environment that fosters personal and professional growth

Mentor

Provide all AWMI members with the opportunity to mentor and to be mentored

Why Join AWMI?

Becoming a member of AWMI means joining a dynamic community where you can grow your career and build lasting connections. From leadership development and mentorship to industry tours and educational events, AWMI offers countless ways to learn, share, and succeed. You'll meet professionals who are passionate about supporting one another and shaping the future of the metals industry. It's more than a membership—it's an opportunity to be part of a supportive network that inspires growth and success.

